Return to Samuel Gilleran, 709 Mulberry Road, Martinsville, in person, by mail, or by email (sdgilleran@gmail.com) no later than 11:59 PM, April 3, 2013. For further information, contact Samuel Gilleran at 276-340-0110 or sdgilleran@gmail.com. Checks may be made payable to the Martinsville Republican Committee.

All legal and qualified voters of Martinsville City under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party and who, if requested, express in open meeting either orally or in writing as may be required, their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, may participate as members of the Republican Party of Virginia in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions or primaries encompassing their respective election districts.

NOTE: As per the Call for the Martinsville City Mass Meeting, the mass meeting will be cancelled should no more than the allotted 80 delegates file for election. In that case, all filers meeting the filing requirements of the Call for the Mass Meeting will be deemed to have been elected. For this reason, it is requested you provide your email address or other contact information, so the MRC can expeditiously communicate the cancellation to all interested Mass Meeting attendees and Delegates.

Paid for and authorized by the Martinsville Republican Committee.
