

Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee of Virginia Plan of Organization

ARTICLE I - Name

The name of this organization shall be "Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee of Virginia," hereinafter called the "District Committee" or "the Committee." Additionally, the informal name of "Virginia's Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee" may be used to refer to the organization.

ARTICLE II - Organization

The District Committee is organized under and governed by the "Plan of Organization of the Republican Party of Virginia" (the "State Party Plan"). No action of the District Committee shall conflict with the State Party Plan, as amended from time to time. To the extent that there shall be a conflict, the provisions of the State Party Plan shall prevail.

ARTICLE III - Objectives

Section A. Support of Republican Party of Virginia Creed

The Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee does hereby declare that it fully supports and endorses the Creed of the Republican Party of Virginia.

Republican Party of Virginia Creed

WE BELIEVE:

That the free enterprise system is the most productive supplier of human needs and economic justice,

That all individuals are entitled to equal rights, justice, and opportunities and should assume their responsibilities as citizens in a free society,

That fiscal responsibility and budgetary restraints must be exercised at all levels of government,

That the Federal Government must preserve individual liberty by observing Constitutional limitations,

That peace is best preserved through a strong national defense,

That faith in God, as recognized by our Founding Fathers is essential to the moral fiber of the Nation.

Section B. Purpose

The purpose of the District Committee is to promote and promulgate the principles of the Republican Party, to encourage qualified candidates to run for public office, to assist in electing Republican candidates to public office, to assist generally the members composing the units served by the District Committee, and to assist elected Republican officials in the execution of their responsibilities.

ARTICLE IV - Membership and Voting Rights

Members of the District Committee must reside within and be registered voters of Virginia's Ninth Congressional District throughout their terms on the Committee.

No member of the Committee shall be entitled to more than one vote on any matter. An individual who serves as both a unit chairman and member of the State Central Committee or District Chairman shall adhere to Article VI, Section H of the State Party Plan.

Voting membership on the District Committee shall consist of and be restricted to the following:

- (1) District Chairman;
- (2) Chairman of each Unit located wholly or in part within the District, or his or her designee when the Unit Chairman does not reside in the District;
- (3) Members of the State Central Committee elected by the Quadrennial District Convention, unless deprived of voting rights by the Biennial District Convention;
- (4) Members of the State Central Committee elected by the District Committee by virtue of the District having cast its plurality vote for the Republican Presidential nominee in the last preceding Presidential election and/or the District being represented by a Republican Member of the United States House of Representatives , unless deprived of voting rights by the Biennial District Convention;
- (5) Other Members of the State Central Committee residing in the Ninth District who are elected to a statewide or regional SCC voting position, unless deprived of voting rights by the Biennial District Convention.
- (6) Ninth District Representative of the Virginia Federation of Republican Women;
- (7) Ninth District Representative of the Young Republican Federation; and
- (8) Ninth District Representative of the College Republican Federation.

As used in these Bylaws, "member of the District Committee" shall mean a voting member of the District Committee.

ARTICLE V - Nonvoting District Committee Officers

Section A. Elected Officers

1. Election - The District Committee Officers shall be elected by the District Committee at the first meeting following the Biennial District Convention to serve until their successors are elected at the first meeting following the next Biennial District Convention.
2. Removal - A District Committee Officer may be removed from office for cause by a two-thirds vote of the members of the District Committee, after notice and opportunity to present a defense as set forth in the State Party Plan.
3. Vacancies in Elected Offices - Vacancies in any District Committee Office shall be filled by a vote of the members of the District Committee at the first meeting following the occurrence of the vacancy in which notice of the intent to fill the vacancy has been included in the call of the meeting. The District Chairman may make an interim appointment to an office until the District Committee fills the vacancy.

4. Voting - An officer shall not enjoy voting rights unless he or she is entitled to vote as a member of the District Committee. With the exception of the right to vote, District Committee Officers may participate fully in District Committee meetings, including, but not limited to, making of motions and participation in discussion.
5. District Committee Officers shall be:
 - (1) First Vice-Chairman;
 - (2) District Secretary
